ANNOUNCEMENT

WERKVERTRAG: International Comparable Corpus

I am looking for a student research assistant to work with me on the preparation of the component for English for the new International Comparable Corpus.

The work requires the conversion of 200 written texts from an SGML format into an XML format, according to Guidelines which I have drawn up. Each text is c. 2,000 words. Checking and file organization will also be required.

The work may start any time but has to be completed by 30 June 2019.

An applicant must be a registered student at the Universität Wien.

Remuneration will be by text: EUR 15,00 per text, so a total of EUR 3.000,00 is available. The work may be divided among more than one assistant.

Applications, in the form of a statement of interest and suitability, together with a brief CV, are invited by 18.00 on 14 March 2019, by email to me at john.kirk@univie.ac.at Informal enquiries are welcome.
