- The SPL will issue a decision within a maximum of 2 months. Once the decision becomes legally binding the recognition is unalterable.
- Recognition is regarded as examination; additional completion of the examination is not permitted.
- If the examination is passed before the end of the recognition procedure (legal validity of the decision), the legal interest in a decision ceases to exist due to a change in the relevant circumstances.
In this case, the procedure is discontinued by means of a file note.
